“Remember We’re in this thing together!”

DR. PHYLLIS W. ANDERSON

Welcome to our 36th Season!

The Augusta Chorale turns 36 this season (2018-2019). And our concerts continue to embrace the dream of our founders “to use every opportunity to bring about awareness of hymns, anthems, spirituals, and the classics.” Our singers enthusiastically welcome this tradition whether they are trained at the finest music schools or they just love to sing good music! Regardless of our members’ background, the Augusta Chorale trains singers to learn together, work together, and sing together!

We believe that our music helps the world to be a better place— for us as singers, you as our audience, and for those who are touched by our music whether in the public schools, nursing homes, hospitals, churches, concert halls, and even those who view our website www.augustachorale.org or visit our Facebook page. We are committed to singing songs that lift the human heart and energize the spirit.

We are continuing our Salute to Unforgettable Singers and Songs for the 2018-2019 season! We will salute Kirk Franklin during the Christmas Concert (Sunday December 9, 2018) and the legendary Aretha Franklin during the Spring Concert (Sunday May 5, 2019). And for the first time in history, the Augusta Chorale will present the Blakeney Elementary School and Lamar -Milledge Elementary School, a group of elementary school children performing songs that encourage patriotism, friendship, peace, and harmony by engaging our children to sing together.

"What began with my telephone call to Dr. Don L. Cleary inviting the Columbia County Choral Society to join the Augusta Chorale for its Spring Concert has developed into a beautiful and historic musical collaboration! Three musical groups, the Augusta Chorale, the Columbia County Choral Society, and the Aiken Civic Orchestra combined forces on May 6, 2018 to perform Robert Nathaniel Dett's 'The Chariot Jubilee.' Since then I have met with small groups of Augusta Chorale members and Columbia County Choral Society members and we have formed the Music Collaboration Committee. Our first event, the Collaborative Potluck Dinner October 14, 2018 at First Baptist of Evans, was a total success! Stay tuned for more good music, good food, and good fellowship!"

Dr. Phyllis W. Anderson, Founding Chairman

The mission of the Music Collaboration Committee is to share the joy of choral singing as a means of helping our community to embrace understanding, love and cultural diversity.

the Augusta
CHORALE

Phyllis W. Anderson, artistic director, A native of Norfolk, Virginia, Dr. Phyllis Anderson first stepped on the red clay of Georgia in 1978. While completing her master's degree at Ohio State University, she was invited to apply for the position as choir director of Paine College in Augusta, Georgia. During the interview with the then president, Dr. Julius S. Scott, Jr., she felt an instant connection with the college. In her words, "I came. I fell in love (with Paine College). I stayed." During Dr. Anderson's 13-year tenure as Choir director and tenured Associate Professor at Paine College, the Concert Choir performed Vivaldi's Gloria, Mozart's Regina Coeli, and Handel's Messiah; brought packed audiences to the Gilbert–Lambuth Memorial Chapel; and, produced a live recording of Handel's Messiah accompanied by members of the Augusta Symphony Orchestra (1984).

In 1991, Dr. Anderson headed for her next great challenge – motherhood and teaching little children. Dr. Anderson taught elementary music in the Columbia County School System (Grovetown, Euclaw Creek, North Columbia and Baker Place Elementary Schools). Dr. Anderson retired from teaching in 2017. Dr. Anderson has earned three degrees: B. S. Norfolk State University; M. A., Ohio State University; and the D. M. A., University of Georgia. She was voted "Teacher of the Year" at Euclaw Creek Elementary and at Paine College. The Georgia Music Educators Association honored Dr. Anderson for her work as a music specialist in 2016. She is a member of Friendly Church of God in Christ, Music Educators National Conference, Augusta Chapter of the Links, Inc., Delta Kappa Gamma Society, and the Professional Association of Georgia Educators; as well as a music consultant at Good Hope Baptist Church. She and her husband, Walter Anderson of Steubenville, Ohio, have one son, Joseph Wesley.

In 2007, the Augusta Chorale invited Dr. Anderson to be its artistic director. Since then, the Chorale has performed quality repertoire at the Arts in the Heart of Augusta Festival, public schools, veteran homes and hospitals, churches, and civic events. In May 2018, the Augusta Chorale collaborated with the Columbia County Choral Society to perform Robert Nathaniel Dett's The Chariot Jubilee. The music merger was so successful that the two choirs have formed a Music Collaboration Committee to plan joint events and concerts which spread love, peace, and harmony to all ages, races, cultures and backgrounds.

Angela Arrington, piano accompanist, The Augusta Chorale salutes Ms. Angela Arrington, our long-time and dedicated accompanist. Ms. Arrington is a native Augustan who had an early interest in music and was able to play various tunes she heard at age two. She could play with both hands by the age of five. Ms. Arrington recognized her extraordinary talent and took advantage of these musical attributes.

She studied piano at Turner/Baldwin School so that she could nurture her God-given talent. Later, she was introduced to the Connors who taught her private piano lessons.

She is a graduate of Richmond Hill Seventh-Day Adventist Elementary and Glenn Hills High School in Augusta, Georgia. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Mathematics and Computer Science with a minor in music from Oakwood University in Huntsville, Alabama. While in college, she sang in two choirs and was an accompanist for various groups, organizations, and functions.

Ms. Arrington has participated in programs that included recording artists: Dottie Peoples, Jessye Norman, Michael Young, and James Bignon. She is a member of the Ebenezer Seventh-Day Adventist Church where she accompanies the choirs of the church as organist and pianist.

Rosalyn W. Floyd is a Professor of piano, accompanying, and music theory in the Department of Music at Augusta University. A graduate of Talladega College in Alabama, Dr. Floyd holds the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Piano Performance and Pedagogy from the University of South Carolina. Best known as a collaborative artist, Dr. Floyd has accompanied the world-renowned soprano Martino Arroyo, noted baritones Oral Moses and Timothy Jones, sopranos Linda Banister, Laquita Mitchell, and Levone Tobin Scott, and the Augusta Choral Society. Dr. Floyd's collaborative endeavors have taken her to many areas throughout the United States, the Bahamas, and the Peoples's Republic of China. Named as the Greater Augusta Arts Council Artist of the Year (2005), Dr. Floyd can be heard as the accompanist on the Albany Records recording Oral Moses Sings Songs of America (TROY 1101).

Guest Performers

Brandon Alexander Ball, tenor, is a 2014 graduate of Augusta University, with a Bachelors of Arts degree in Communications; and, a 2015 graduate with a Bachelors of Arts degree in Music-Vocal Performance. Currently, Brandon is a graduate student at Columbus State University (CSU) in Columbus, Georgia; where he is working towards a Master of Music in Vocal Performance degree (expected Spring 2018). He is a student of Professor Earl Coleman, the William and Isabelle Curry Eminent Faculty Scholar Chair in Voice. Brandon has performed with the Augusta Opera, and the American Opera and Musical Theatre Institute at Augusta University. Brandon is a 2015 Augusta University Music Department Concerto Winner; and, a 2015 recipient of the Lucie C. Ruzicka award for the Pamplin College of Arts' Augusta University Department of Music as the most Outstanding Vocal Student. He is a 2015 Jack Kearns Artist in Residence with the Columbia County Choral Society, conducted by Dr. Don Cleary. Brandon has performed as a featured soloist with the Columbia County Choral Society, and the Augusta Chorale.

Patrick N. Outler, baritone, born on October 14, 1991, to Mr. and Mrs. Artis and Barbara Outler in Augusta, Georgia, was educated in the Richmond County public schools. He graduated from A. R. Johnson Health Science & Engineering Magnet School May 2010.

On May 6, 2017, Patrick graduated Magna Cum Laude from Morris College in Sumter, South Carolina, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and minor in Religion. Patrick held many academic honors; Dean's List student, O. R. Reuben Scholar, and Who's Who Among Students in American Universities & Colleges. Patrick was accepted into the 2015-2016 HBCU All-Star cohort to serve as a White House Initiative on HBCUs student ambassador for Morris College under President Barack Obama's Executive Order, Promoting Excellence, Innovation, & Sustainability at Historically Black Colleges and Universities. Patrick was formally inducted and awarded this honor in Washington, DC on September 21, 2015. He is employed by the Richmond County Board of Education as the Theatre Arts teacher at Langford Middle School.

At four years old, Patrick sang his first solo at Palmer Grove Missionary Baptist Church, "God Has Smiled On Me" and later became a member of Carpentersville Baptist Church located in North Augusta, South Carolina. In 2012, he was licensed to preach the gospel and in August 2016, he was ordained. At "CBC" Patrick uses his gift to lead the congregation in Praise & Worship. His constant prayer is articulated from Matthew 5:16 "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Finally, Patrick's favorite quote is, "Work for a cause, not applause. Live your life to express, not impress. Don't strive to make your presence noticed, just make you absence felt."

ONCE IN ROYAL DAVID'S CITY Augusta Chorale & Audience Alexander & Gauntlett

Once in royal David's city, Stood a lowly cattle shed;
Where a mother laid her baby, In a manger for His bed;
Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.

He came down to earth from heaven, Who is God and Lord of All,
And His shelter was a stable, And His cradle was a stall.
With the poor and mean and lowly, Lived on earth our Savior holy.

And our eyes at last shall see Him, Through His own redeeming love,
For that child so dear and gentle, Is Our Lord in heaven above;
And He leads His children on, To the place where He is gone.

Oh say can you see by the dawn's early light.
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming.
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight.
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming.

And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air.
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

LOVE IS LOVE IS LOVE IS LOVE Words compiled by Abbie Betinis &

Music by Abbie Betinis

LET THERE BE PEACE ON EARTH Sy Miller & Jill Jackson, Jay Rouse, arr.

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With God as our Father, brothers all are we,
Let me walk with my brother in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me; Let this be the moment now.
with ev'ry step I take, let this be my solemn vow:
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.
Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

RECESSIONAL..... Chorus and Audience You're a Grand Old Flag/God Bless America

You're a grand old flag. You're a high flyin' flag, and forever in peace may you wave.
You're the emblem of the land I love, the home of the free and the brave.
Ev'ry heart beats true 'neath the red white and blue. Where there's never a boast or brag.
But should auld acquaintance be forgot, keep your eye on the grand old flag!

God Bless America, land that I love.
Stand beside her and guide her, thru the night with a light from above.
From the mountains, to the prairies, to the oceans white with foam,
God bless America, my home, sweet home. God bless America, my home, sweet home.
